Crochet hook: size 2mm

Stuffing – stitch markers – tapestry needle – scissors – pencil – glue – glue gun – cotton buds

Cardboard: small piece – 2mm thick

Safety eyes: 2pcs – 10mm diameter – black

Chopstick: 1pc – made of wood

I made this whole pattern with a YARN UNDER stitch but a yarn over stitch is possible too.

\*The color of yarn that you have to use is mentioned at the back of the row.  If nothing is mentioned, use the same color as the previous row.*

\*Only work in the front or back loops when this is mentioned.  If nothing is mentioned, work in both loops.*

\*I used an invisible decrease stitch instead of a regular decrease stitch.*

\*The "ch1" from "ch1 and turn" does not count as a stitch*

Row 64: dec, 8sc, dec, ch1 and turn (10)

Row 65: sc all around the coat but in each corner at the top you make 2 extra sc and in each corner at the bottom you make 1 extra sc

- Make 1sl st in the first stitch
- Yarn off

Collar of coat:

- Find the middle stitch of the neckline of the coat and count 29 stitches to the right (these 29stitches INCLUDES that middle of the neckline stitch)
- Mark that 29th stitch
- With the OUTSIDE of the coat facing you, start the following (see next page) in that 29th stitch:

This is the inside of the coat

13

Row 1: 57sc up along the side, then along the neckline, then down the other side of the coat with light purple, then turn (do NOT make a ch1 before turning)

You are making that light purple collar

Row 2: 57sc, turn (do not ch1 before turning) (57)

Row 3:

- Step 1: 4sl st, 3sc, 4hdc, 4dc (15)
- Leave the rest of the light purple stitches unworked for now
- Yarn off
- Reattach the light purple yarn to the second stitch next to the last dc you just made

Reading (difficult) rows:

Not everyone knows how to read a crochet pattern or the rows in it. So I made you this article on my blog. In it I explain how to read the rows. From the easiest to the most difficult row!

You can find this article in the TUTORIAL category of my blog on Craftygenesindonesia.com website: How to read a written crochet pattern - difficult crochet rows explained - Craftygenesindonesia
